INTRODUCTION.

The Registers of Caundle Bishop, from their commencement in 1570 until the year 1814, are comprised in three volumes.

VOL. I is of parchment, in a limp parchment cover, the leaves, thirty-six in number, measuring 20 ins. by 6½ ins.

The entries begin on the second leaf with Baptisms, 1570; on the eighteenth leaf the Marriages begin; on the twenty-fourth leaf the Burials, also in 1570, but Burials for 1718–38 are recorded on the twenty-second and twenty-third leaves.

The greater part of the twenty-sixth leaf has been cut away, but probably nothing has been lost thereby.

On the verso of the twenty-ninth leaf are records of Benefactions, which are continued on the thirty-fifth.

The last leaf in the volume contains only the entry of a marriage not "in the Origenall," dated 1590, written in the scribe's hand,—and the election of Waywardens in 1685, when the Register was used to record the entry, as though the usual Waywardens' Book was not at hand.

It will be noticed that there are several lacunæ in the volume, extending over a considerable period.

The Register, to the middle of 1598, is a transcript.

VOL. II is a narrow folio, bound in rough brown calf, and containing forty-one leaves of parchment, measuring 15¾ ins. by 7 ins., with two paper fly-leaves at the beginning and two more at the end. It is entitled "The Register Book of all persons Baptized, Married, and Buried in Caundle Bishop from Nov^br 1737," and on the first leaf it is recorded that "This book was bought Nov^br 1738, cost 12*s*.

The Rev^d Mr. E. MILLECHAMP, Rector.
Chas HERBERT, Curate.
Mr. Nicholas GILLINGHAM, } Church Wardens."
Mr. John KELLOWAY, }

This leaf also contains Tables of Fees, a Memorandum relating to the Churchyard Fences, and a note of Mrs. E. Thorne's Benefaction copied from the old Register.

Leaves two to thirteen, both inclusive, and the beginning of leaf fourteen, contain Baptisms, 1737–1814; Marriages, 1738–1752, commence on leaf nineteen, and occupy one page only; and Burials, 1737–1814, commence on leaf thirty-three, and occupy eight leaves. The rest is blank. Some memoranda are written on the fly-leaves.

VOL. III is the usual Marriage Register issued in 1754, a paper book, folio, in a parchment cover, and the leaves ruled with lines. It contains Banns and Marriages 1754–1812. Twenty-one leaves are occupied with entries, the remaining three are blank.

A further memorandum states that "Mr. Cotes received £5. 5. 0 for ye Inclosure of Miss Herbert's with Iron Rails in ye Church yard."

* This bridge is called Curnel or Cernel Bridge.

The following is also in Mr. BRISTED'S handwriting:—

"The Fences all round the Church Yard belong to the Parishioners, and are kept in repair by the Church Wardens. NATH. BRISTED, Rector. This was decided by Archdeacon Hand at a Visitation held at Shaftesbury in ye year 1785, and confirmed by a Declaration of Anthony Notley who now occupies what is κατ' ἐξοχήν called the Farm, made at a Uestry in this Church of B. Caundle in ye presence of me Nath. Bristed, ye Rector, Geo. Fry, Geo. Spicer, Geo. Notley, Henry Brooke and others, 1786."

The foregoing memoranda occur at the beginning of Volume II. At the end is pasted a cutting from an old newspaper, Aug. 6, [? 1789], giving an account of the visit of George III to Sherborne Castle.

Also is written—

"Dr. Cotes, father of Edward Cotes, was the 2d son of Colonel Cotes, who married a Sister of Wm Lord Digby. A nephew of that Dr. Cotes (which nephew was likewise a Colonel in ye army) married afterwards a Daughter of ye sd Wm Ld Digby."
